

Direction – Q1 to Q5- Read each question carefully. Select the option that makes the sentence grammatically correct, clear, and meaningful. Only one option is correct in each case.

Q1. Which sentence uses the adverb correctly?

- a) She sings beautiful in front of the audience.
- b) He hardly never makes a mistake in his reports.
- c) The committee almost discussed every point in the meeting.
- d) He runs quick when he hears the alarm.

Q2. Choose the sentence with the correct adjective usage:

- a) She found the movie too much boring to watch till the end.
- b) The soup tasted well, considering the ingredients were limited.
- c) This is the most unique idea I have ever heard.
- d) The task proved difficult for even the smartest of the students.

Q3. Which sentence has the correct conjunction usage?

- a) No sooner did she enter the hall and everyone stood up.
- b) Hardly had the bell rung when the students rushed out.
- c) Neither he is sincere or hardworking.
- d) Scarcely she had spoken when the lights went out.

Q4. Identify the correct active voice form of the given passive sentence:

"The book was being read by the children in the library."

- a) The children read the book in the library.
- b) The children are reading the book in the library.
- c) The children were reading the book in the library.
- d) The children have read the book in the library.

Q5. Which sentence has the correct use of preposition?

- a) She is married with a doctor who works abroad.
- b) He has been waiting for three hours at the station.
- c) The project must be completed within next week.
- d) They are discussing about the new policy in the meeting.