

Direction – Q1 to Q5- Read each question carefully. Select the option that makes the sentence grammatically correct, clear, and meaningful. Only one option is correct in each case.

Q1. The teacher gave chocolates to the students wrapped in shiny paper.

Which correction removes the ambiguity?

- a) The teacher gave chocolates wrapped in shiny paper to the students.
- b) The teacher wrapped the students in shiny paper and gave them chocolates.
- c) The teacher gave the students wrapped chocolates in shiny paper.
- d) The students gave chocolates to the teacher wrapped in shiny paper.

Q2. Choose the correct sentence:

- a) This is the man whom I believe stole my watch.
- b) This is the man who I believe stole my watch.
- c) This is the man whose I believe stole my watch.
- d) This is the man which I believe stole my watch.

Q3. Pick the correct usage of reflexive pronoun:

- a) She completed the project all by herself.
- b) The manager himself will handle the accounts.
- c) Themselves, they enjoyed at the party.
- d) I and my friend will divide the work ourselves.

Q4. Choose the correct sentence:

- a) Children's books are often colourful.
- b) Childrens' books are often colourful.
- c) Childrens books are often colourful.
- d) The childrens books are often colourful.

Q5. Which sentence is correct?

- a) She gave me an advice on how to crack the exam.
- b) He offered me many advices yesterday.
- c) The teacher gave me three pieces of advice.
- d) I need few advices from you.